

PREPARING SCHOOLS FOR QUALITY SCHOOL GOVERNANCE ACCREDITATION

Three Days

Purpose & Outcome

To develop capability in participants to guide and prepare schools to develop their Quality management system and processes for holistic development of students, meeting the needs and expectations of all interested parties and applicable statutory and regulatory requirements. This shall result in lean processes leading to effectiveness and efficiency of school and can lead schools to get accredited for “Quality School Governance Standard” through NABET-QCI.

Process

The course is conducted in a workshop mode with presentations, Exercises and discussions involving participants. Participants would be provided an overview of -

- Accreditation Standard for Quality School Governance.
 - Parameters of Holistic development of children.
 - Needs and expectations of all interested parties.
 - Applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.
- How to develop Mission statement.
- How to develop quality objectives, their indicators and measures.
- Development of core and support processes.
- Self assessment for compliance, effectiveness and efficiency of quality management system.
- Accreditation process.

Schedule : 0845 to 1730 hrs on first day.
0900 to 1730 hrs on 2nd and 3rd day.

Who Should Attend ?

- School management committee.
- Core group members.
- Teaching staff.
- Administrative staff.

Prior knowledge of the participants

- Accreditation standard.
- Statutory & regulatory requirements applicable to schools.
- Quality management principles.

Why T4T ?

T4T, India's leading training and consultancy organization, with its network of offices across the country, specializes in providing solutions to all quality related issues. With more than 16 years of its operations, T4T utilizes the wealth of experience of its counselors, who conduct training programmes and convert the whole experience into a cherishable memory for all the participants.

T4T Consultant Pvt. Ltd., our Counselors and our training programme “Preparing Schools For Quality School Governance Accreditation” is Registered with NABET/QCI to provide Training and Consultation to Schools.

Competitive Resource of T4T

The team consists of professionals in the field of quality management and continuous improvement along with professionals with experience in teaching and administration of schools. Working as a team they compliment each other.

In past t4t has worked with various Schools to help them to develop quality management system for consistency, improvement and effectiveness resulting in improved satisfaction of all interested parties. In the process they were certified to ISO 9001.

